MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Commander's Coins

1. References:

- a. AR 600-8-22, 25 February 1995, Military Awards.
- b. AR 672-20, 1 June 1993, Incentive Awards.
- c. USAREUR Regulation 10-5, 20 September 1999, HQ USAREUR/&A Responsibilities and Functions.
- d. USAREUR Command Policy Letter 23, Commander's Coins, 7 August 2000.

2. I am the only authorized purchaser for the 80th ASG (NSSG) Commander Coins. I have delegated this same authority to the 254th BSB Commander for their separate BSB Coin. No one else within the 80th ASG (NSSG) is authorized to purchase coins with appropriated funds (APFs).

a. The Commander's coin will not be excessive in size or complexity. Coins may identify the presenter only by his or her position or title, by the name of the presenter's organization, or both. Commanders may also purchase a combined commander's and command sergeant major's coin instead of a commander's coin.

b. The cost of coins will not exceed DRM's recommended cost per year. Current stocks of coins may be presented until depleted.

3. Coins will be given at my discretion and will be used as awards for excellent or unique accomplishments that contribute to the efficiency, economy, or other improvement of U.S. Army operations. Coins may be presented to U.S. Army personnel to recognize performance of assigned duties only when the performance constitutes a unique accomplishment that clearly contributes to increased efficiency and will be presented by myself, the 80th ASG (NSSG) CSM, or a person designated in my behalf.
